

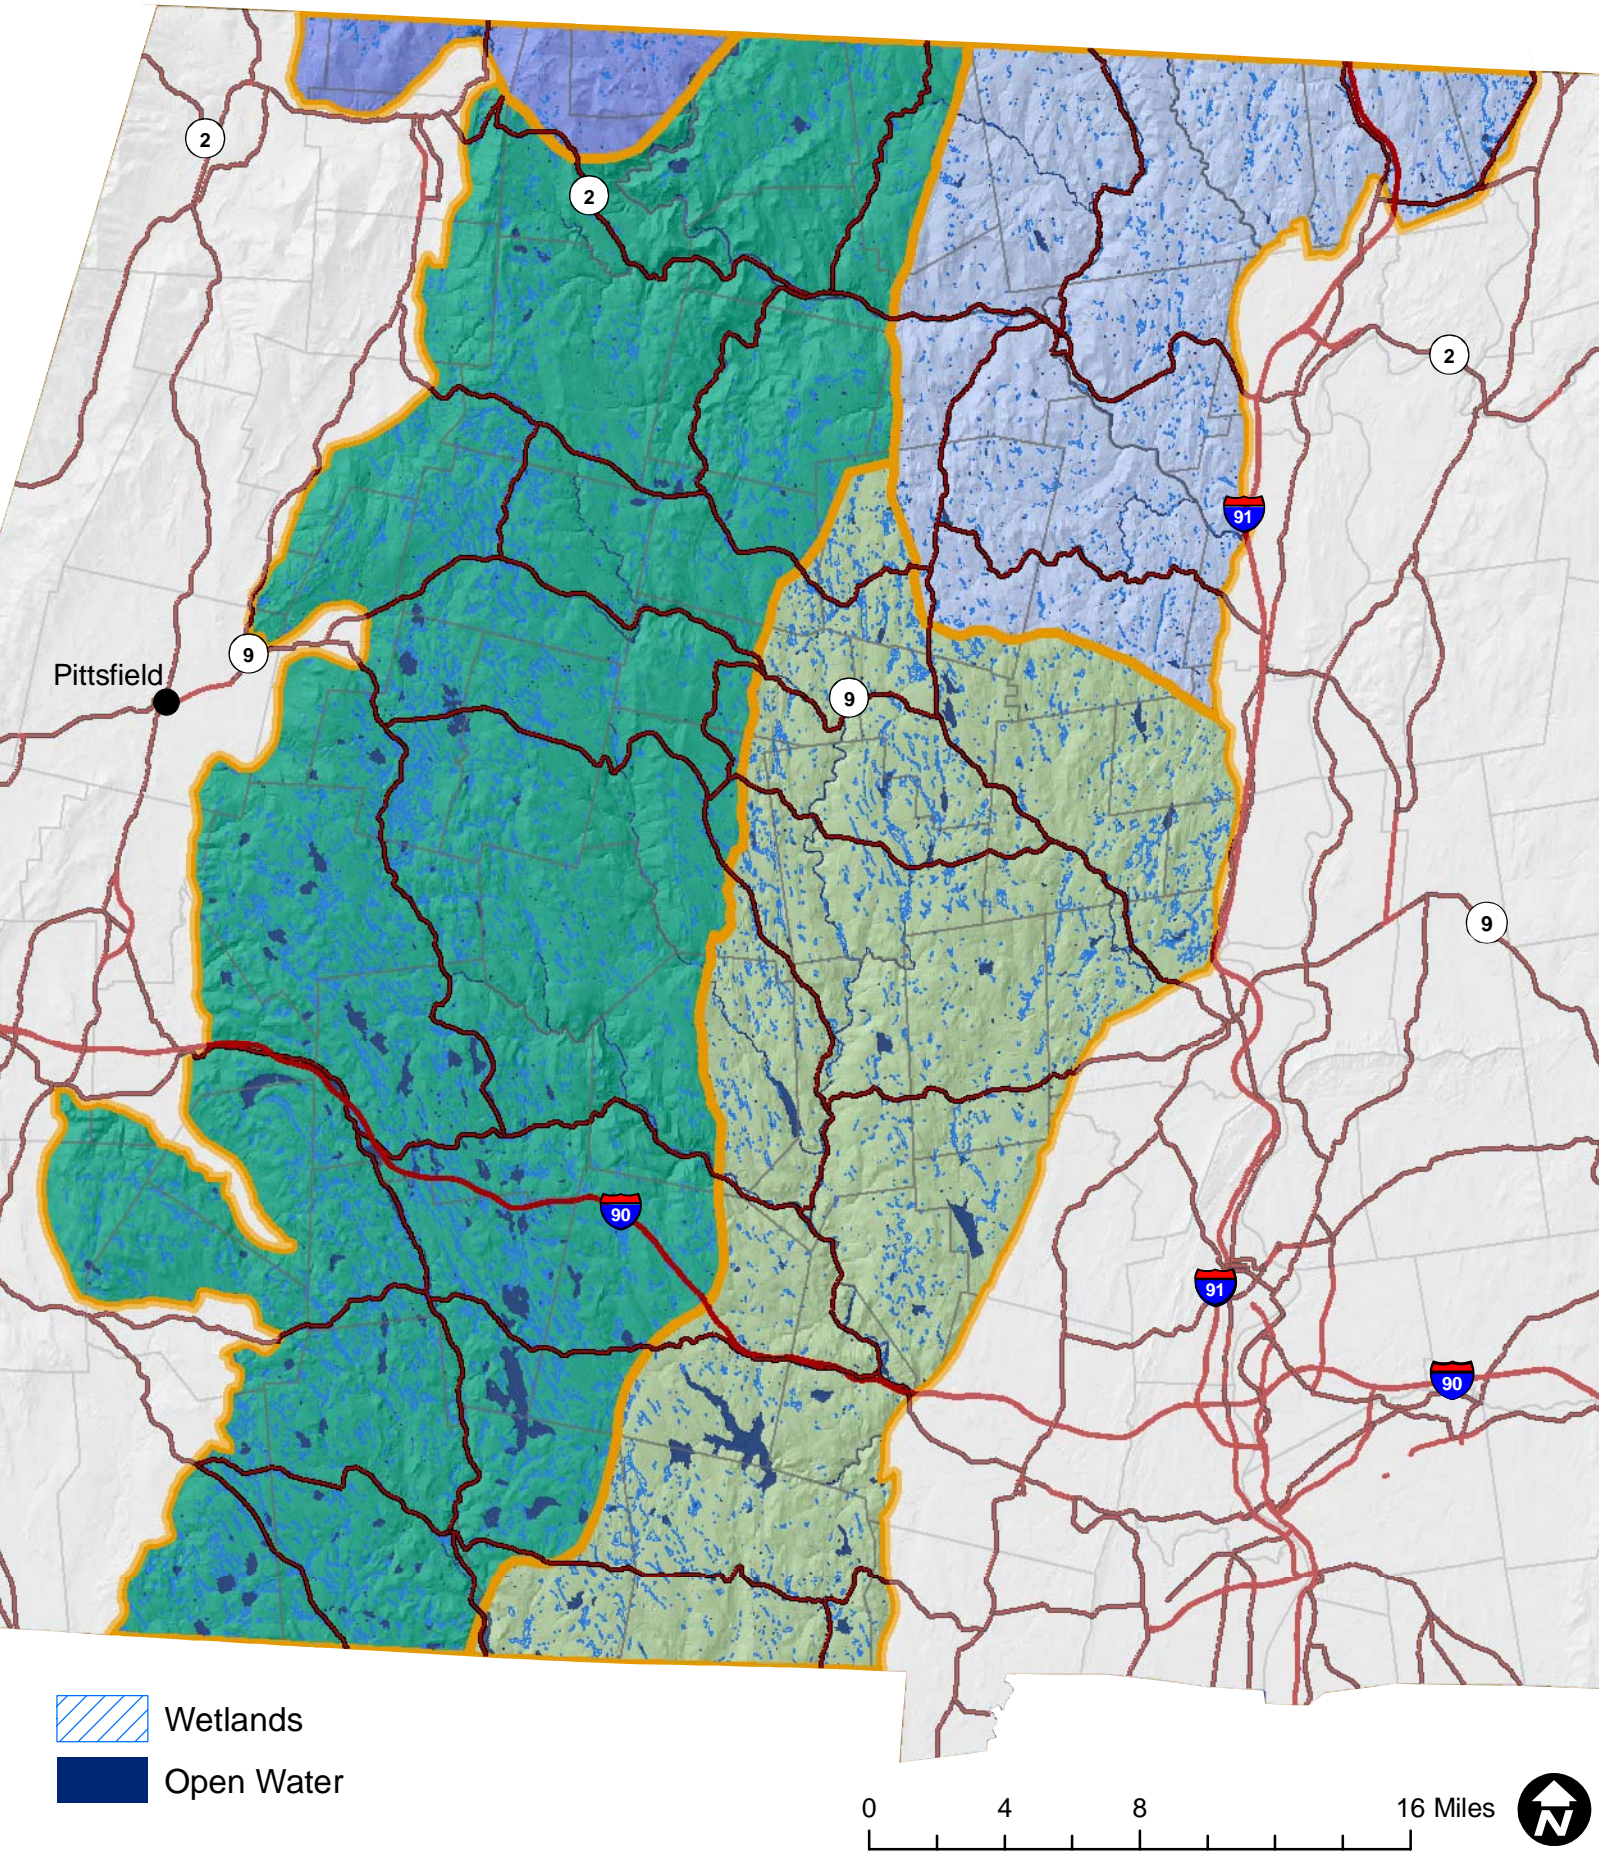

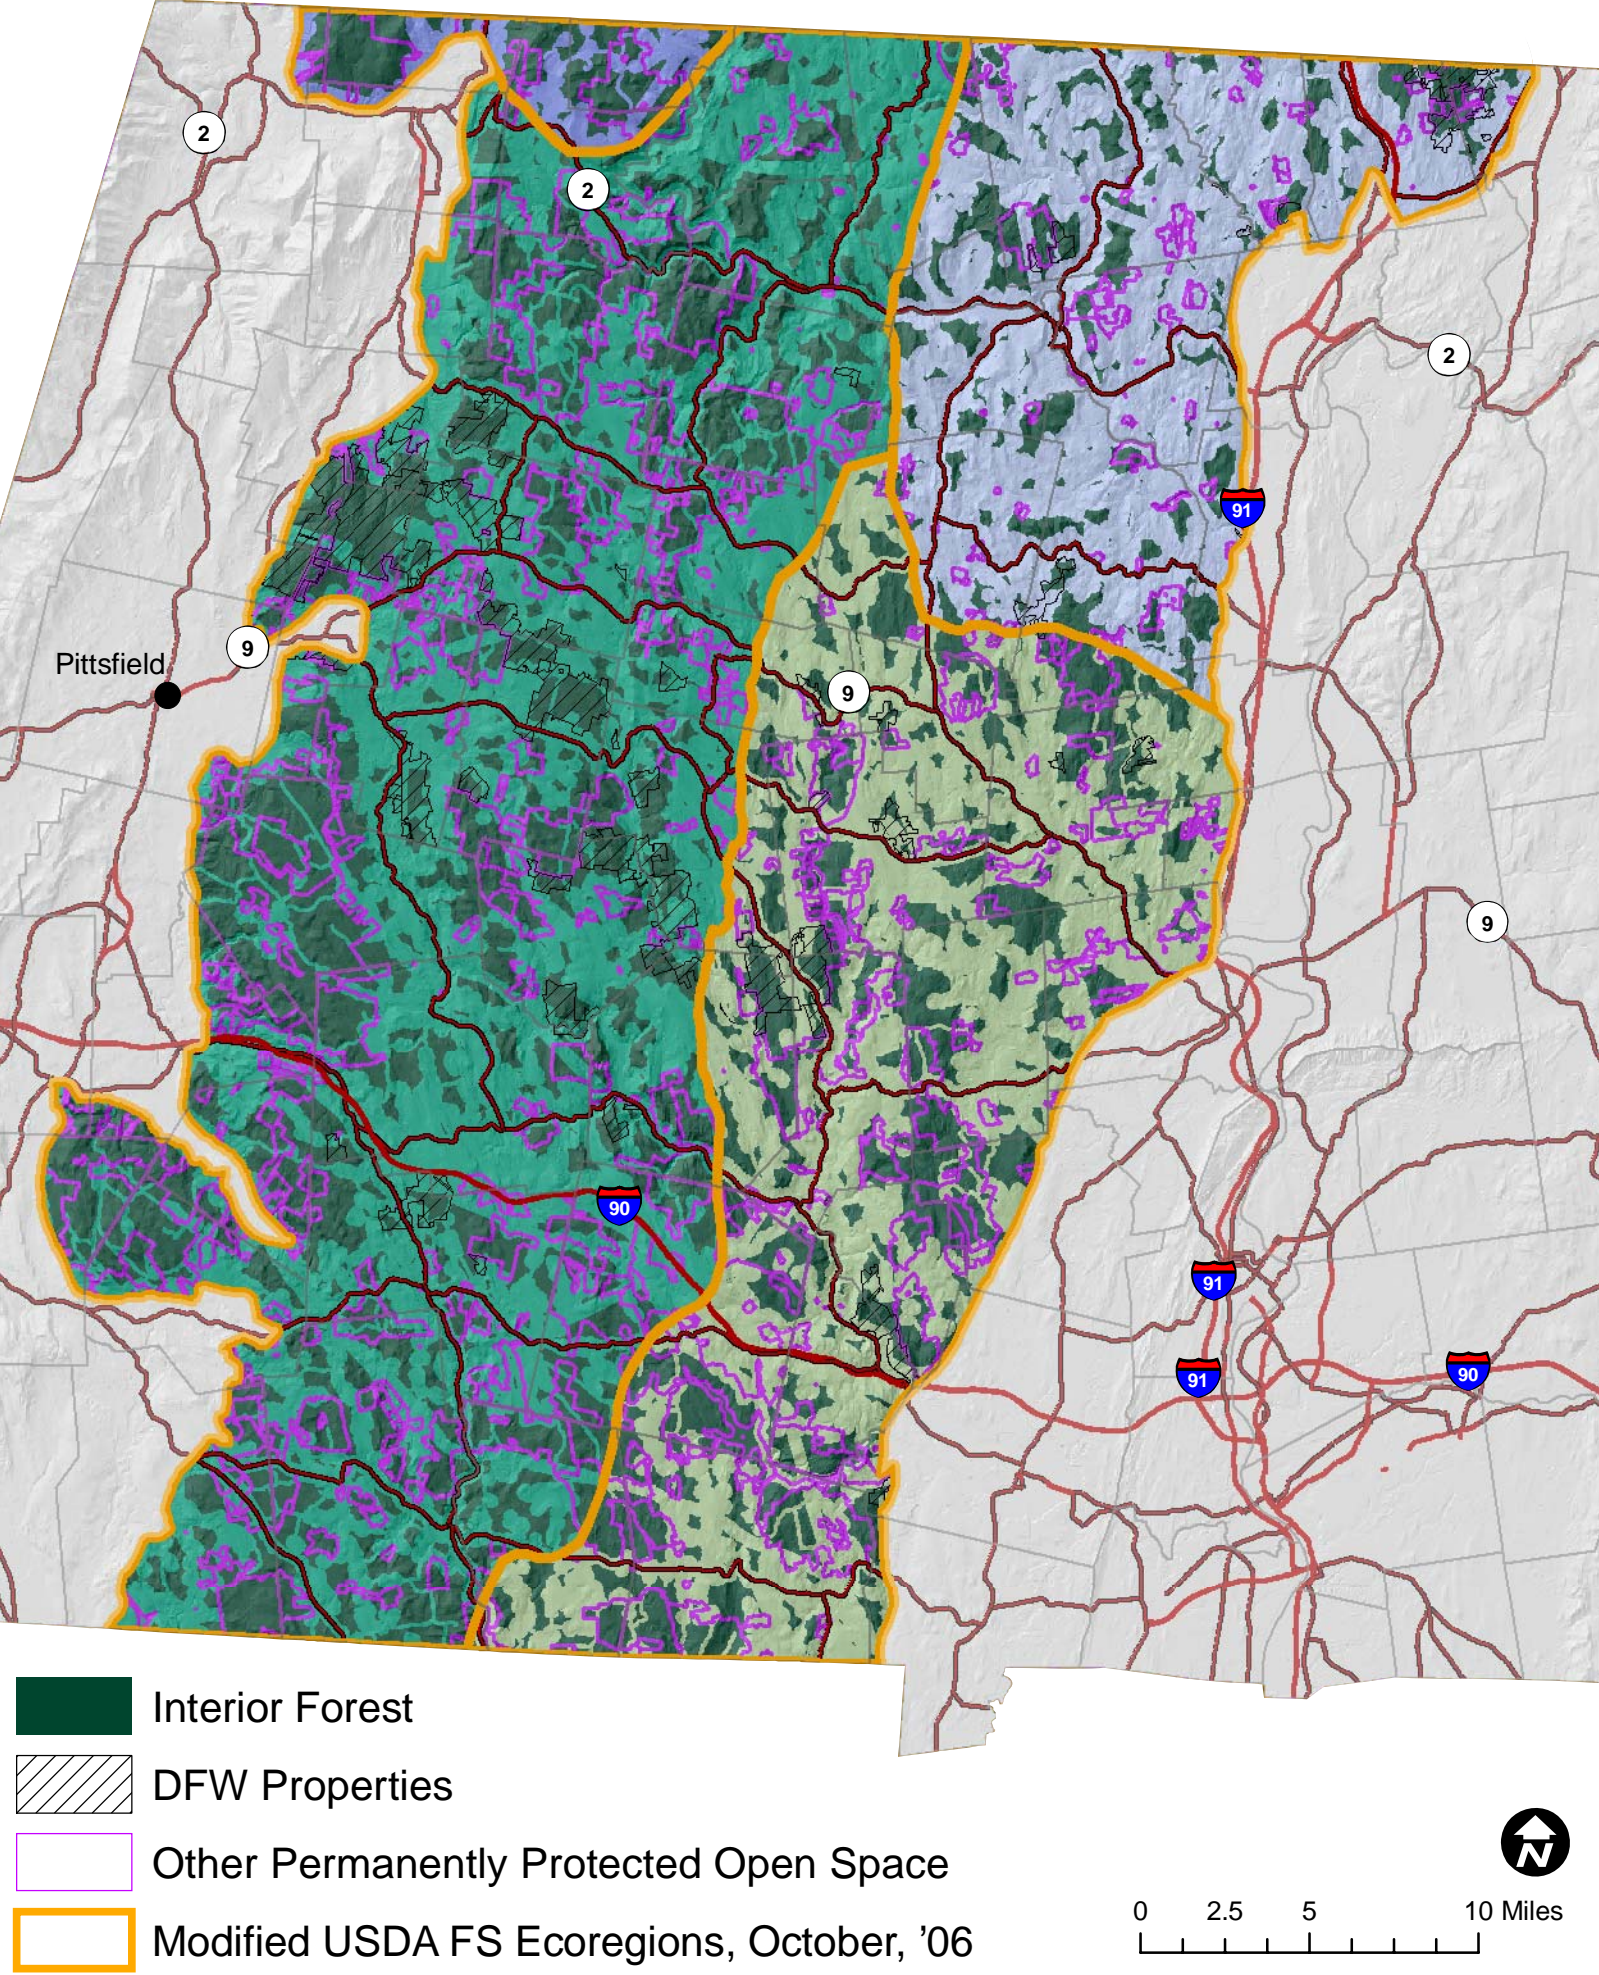

Figure 6. Ecological Provinces within the Berkshire Highlands FMZ

Figure 7. DEP wetlands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ

Figure 8. Interior forest habitat and DFW lands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ.

Figure 9. Known 1830 forest cover in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ (from Hall et al. 2002).

Figure 10. Overlap of interior and primary (1830) forest on DFW lands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ (1830 forest from Hall et al., 2002)

Figure 11. Forest polygon size for DFW lands in the Berkshire Highlands Forest Management Zone. Minimum mapping unit is 5 acres.

Entire Berkshire Highlands FMZ

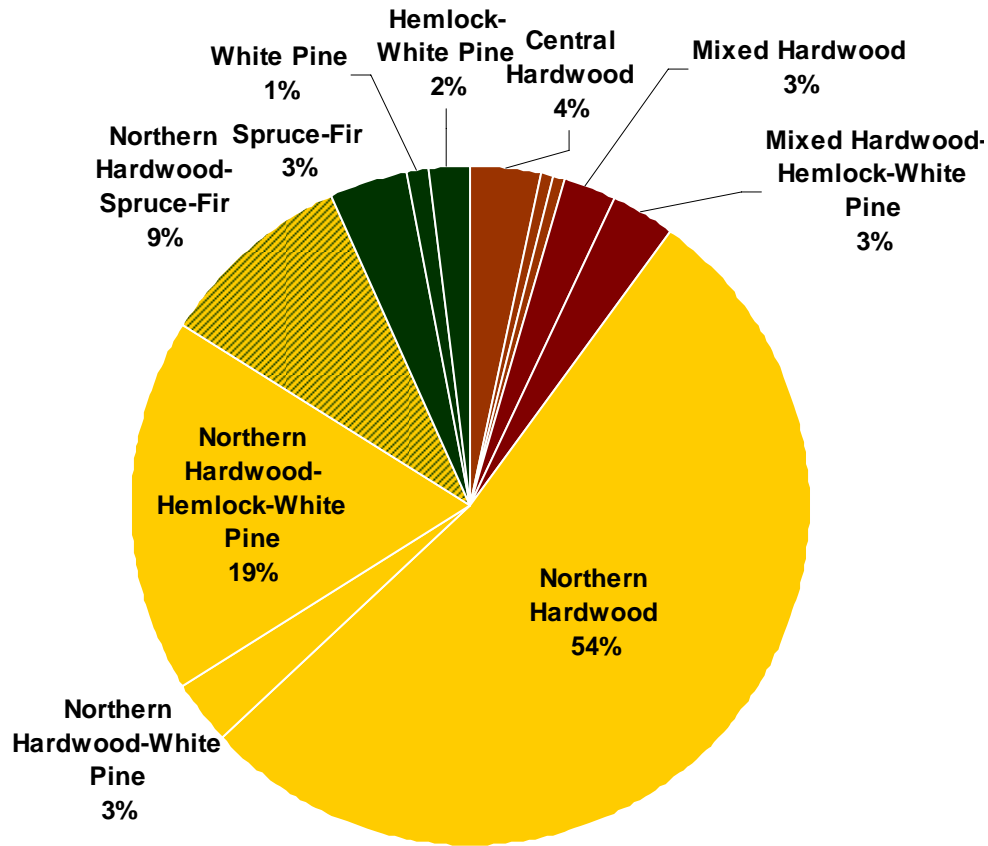

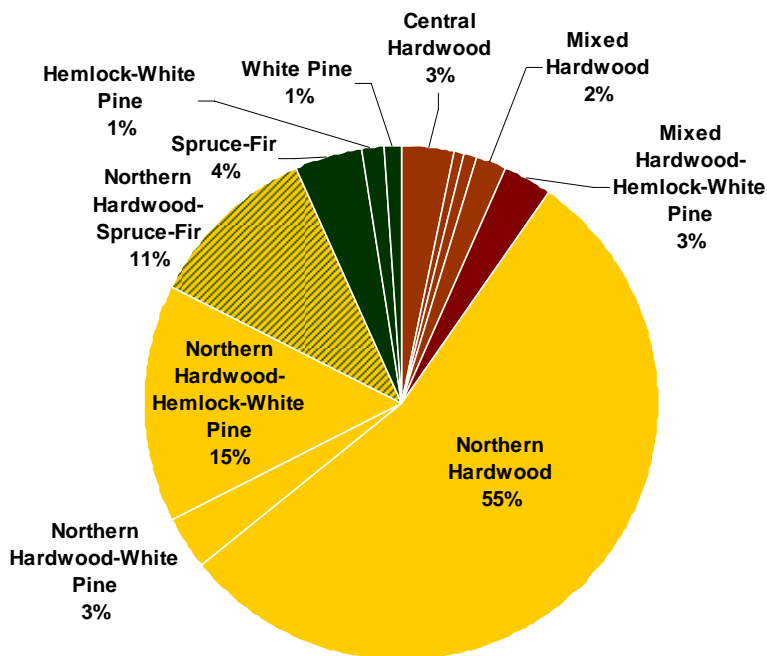

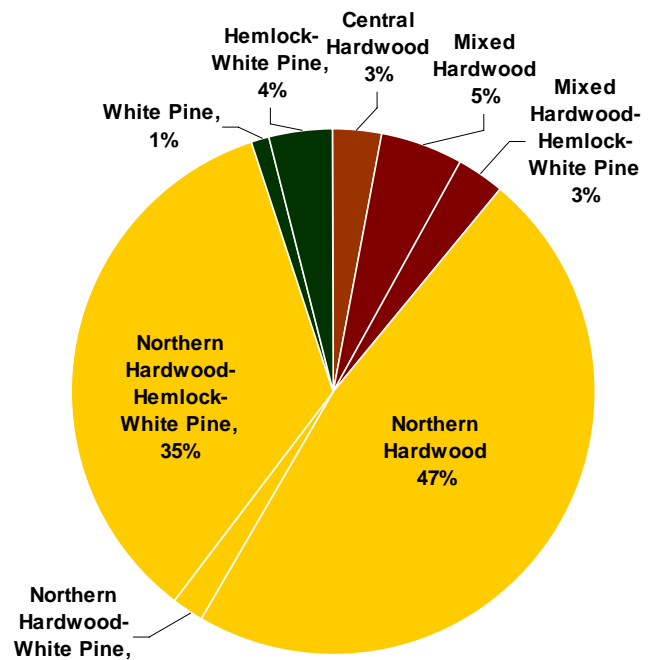

Figure 12. Upland Forest Types on DFW properties in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ overall (above), in the portion of the FMZ in the New England-Adirondack Province (bottom left) and in the portion of the FMZ in the Eastern Broadleaf Forest Province (bottom right).

New England-Adirondack Province

Eastern Broadleaf Forest Province

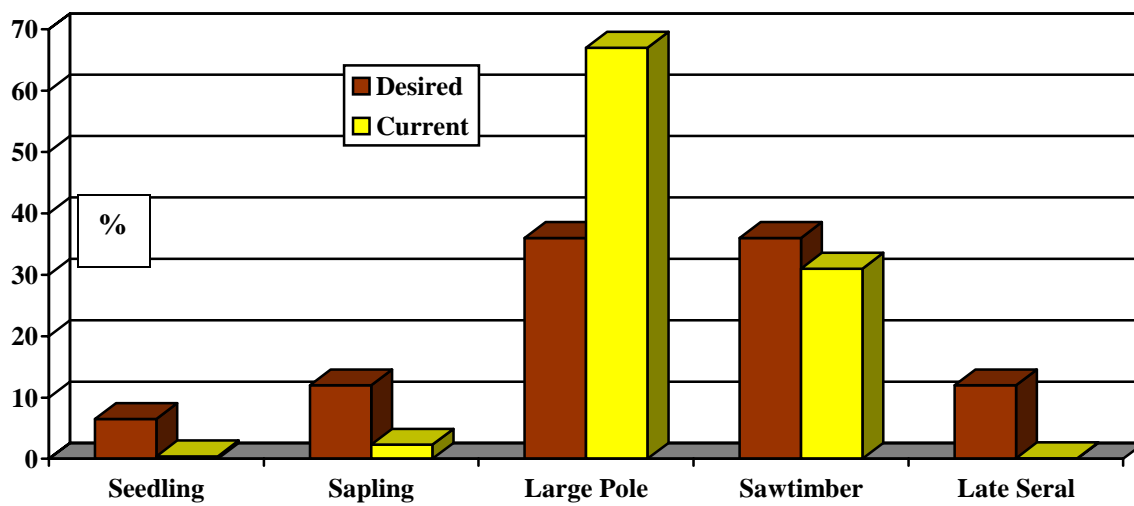

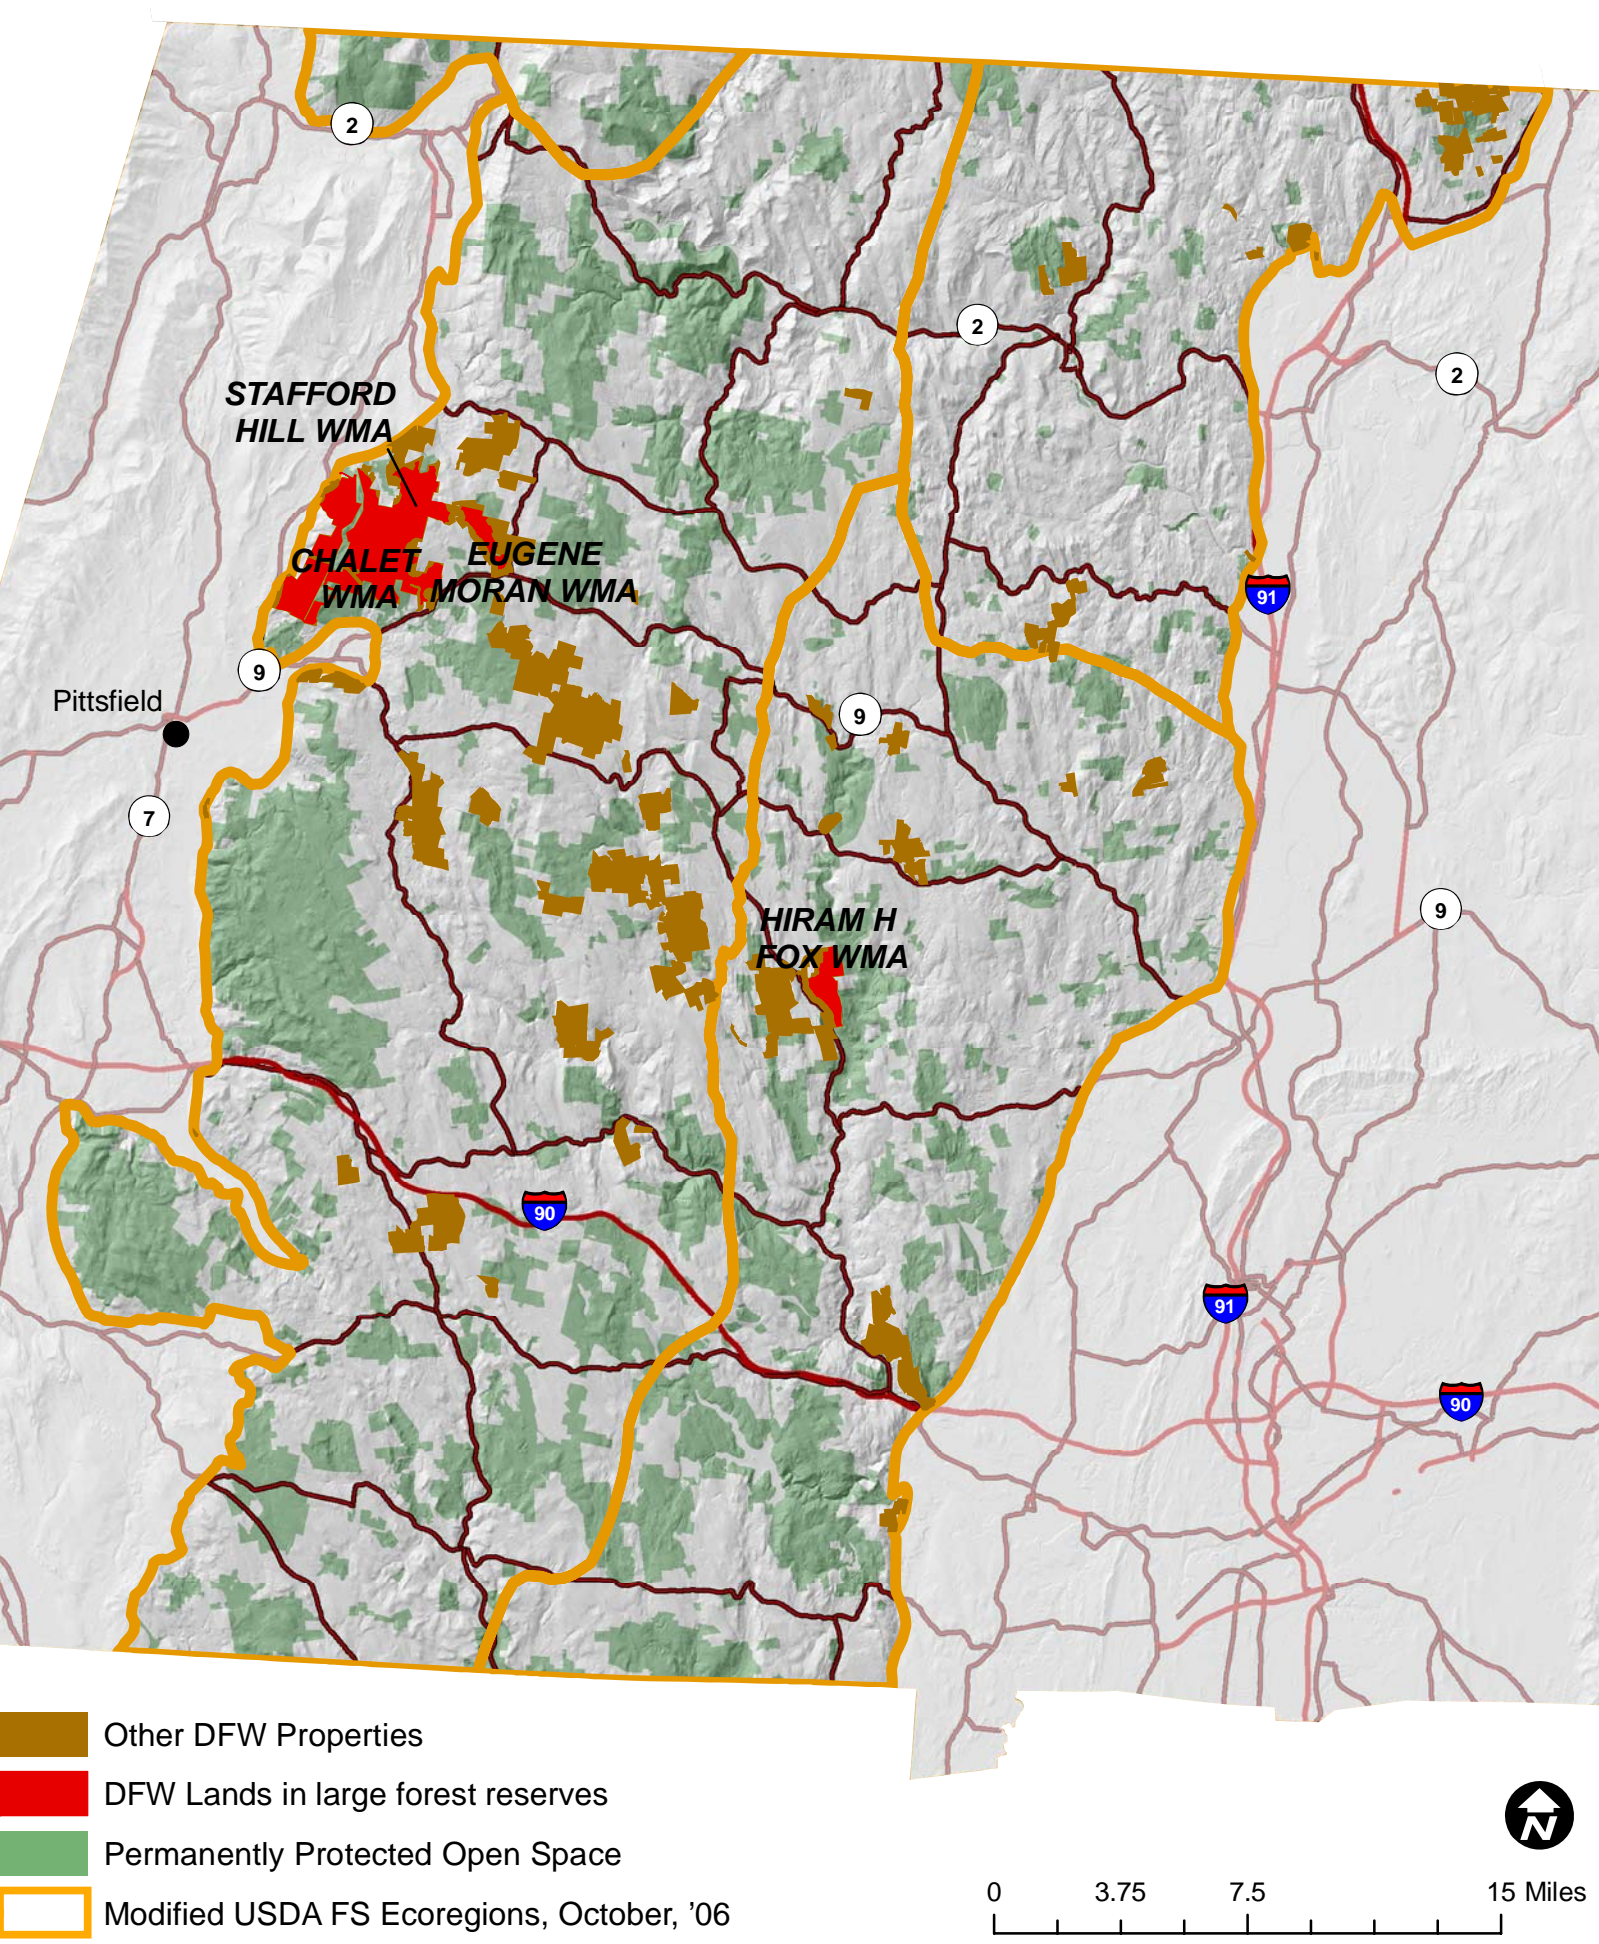

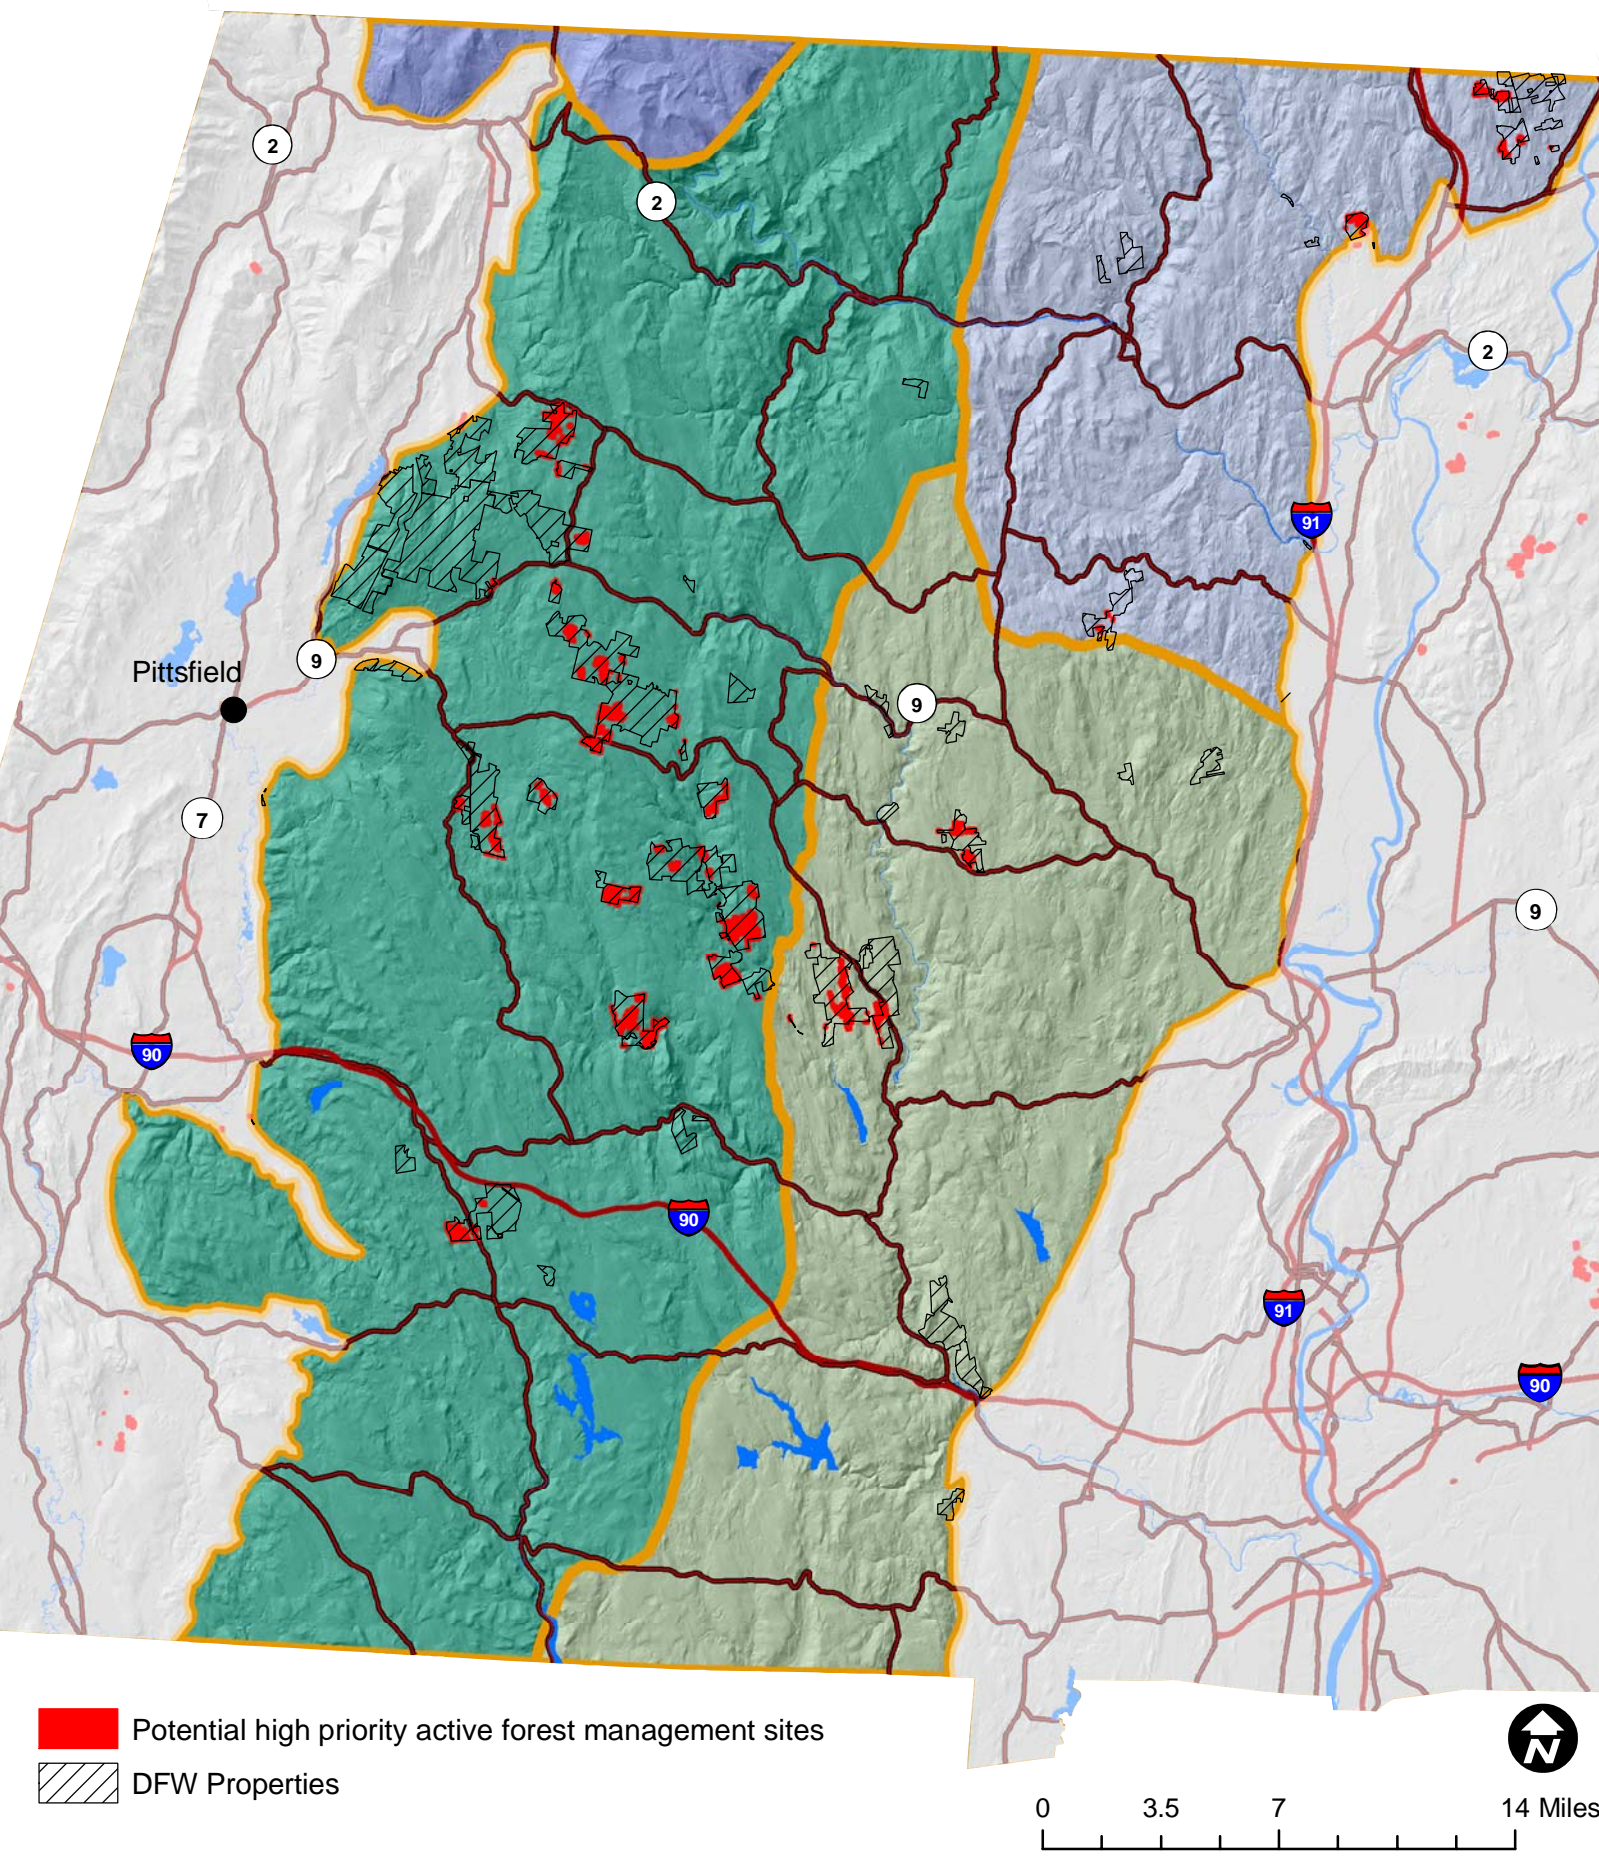

Figure 13. Forest landscape composition goals for DFW lands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ by forest age and size class.

Figure 14. DFW lands in large forest reserves within the Berkshire Highlands FMZ

Figure 15. Potential high priority active forest management sites on DFW lands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ.

Figure 16. BioMap lands in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ

- DFW Properties
- Modified USDA FS Ecoregions, October, '06
- Known Functional Vernal Pools on DFW Land

Figure 17. NHESP certified and known functional vernal pools in the Berkshire Highlands FMZ